

From transport to long-term storage, fully protected.

Most storage solutions are built for convenience, not protection. Standard plastic boxes crack under pressure, premium options lack flexibility, and industrial cases are rarely designed for everyday use. Built on over 50 years of Peli expertise, CRATE changes that by combining field-proven protection, modularity, and efficiency in one reliable system.

Wherever your equipment is stored or deployed, conditions are never fully controlled. Dust, moisture, and impact are constant risks. Peli CRATE is designed to eliminate them, keeping contents protected, organised, and easy to access, while maximising space through secure stacking. When needed, it transitions seamlessly from storage to transport without repacking or disruption.
